Having had a first last time round with Tom Wright sitting at 1, 2 and 3 in the Eden chart it's a bit of a change with the former Bishop of Durham now at 2, 3 and 6. Another change this time is that instead of the ten new entries across the UK charts we have 14 – 9 of them in the CLC chart which sees only Open Your Bible (this time with DVD) hanging around from last time.

First time entries include A Boy, A Journey, A Dream by Bazil Meade in the CLC chart and Miracle in the Mine, the story of the Chilean miners, in the Eden chart. Joyce Meyer and Stormie Omartian make new appearances with Living Beyond Your Feelings and The Power of a Praying Wife whilst Omartian's 2006 title The Power of a Praying Parent makes a first appearance too. Those apart the charts see a number of returners including Redeeming Love, back at No 1 with Eden, Philip Yancey at No1 in the CLC chart with What Good is God, and Alpha: Questions of Life by Nicky Gumbel, signalling the start of the new Alpha season.

In the US chart Heaven is for Real retains top spot in a chart with four new entries. Weird comes straight in at No 2 and Kyle Idleman's Not a Fan makes its first appearance at No 7.

SPCK (thanks to Tom Wright) and Hodder & Stoughton share top spot in the UK publisher chart with three entries each, followed closely by Monarch and David C Cook/Kingsway with two entries each. In the USA, Zondervan are in top spot with three entries whilst Thomas Nelson and Standard (thanks to KJV Commentaries) have two entries.
